

March 29, 2005

Michael Wright worked at our photography studio for one year from April 2004 to April 2005. He is a very friendly and reliable person, always ready to help.

Since ours is a small studio, work with us was broadly general. His primary activity was in the darkroom making silver prints for publication and presentation, although at times he also assisted near the camera in the doing of magazine portraits and still life for various advertising clients.

Now Michael Wright has chosen to leave us to seek his work elsewhere, hoping for a broader variety of activities.

We all wish him well.
